Electude Wins the Best Automotive e-Learning Company 2017 Award

Electude International, the leading global provider of automotive e-learning solutions, is pleased to announce Corporate Vision Magazine has named it the Best Automotive e-Learning Company 2017 award in its HR & Training Awards category.

Following the success of the inaugural HR & Training Awards in 2016, the 2017 awards honour those companies and individuals that are meeting the highest standards of productivity and performance within their respected industry areas.

Discussing the programme, Amy Gower, Awards Coordinator, commented: "Operating in such a vital industry, each of my deserving winners has demonstrated their dedication, commitment and tenacity, and as such I am proud to showcase their achievements and wish them the very best of luck going forward."

Thomas Snyder, Electude's Chief Commercial Officer, added: "Electude is extremely proud of being recognized as the best automotive e-learning company in the world. Our company has set out to fundamentally change how automotive technology is taught and we believe we are achieving that goal. Being recognised as best in class by a panel of independent judges affirms our company's vision and mission."
